8 min walk from Drumcondra Rail Station. Buses 1, 16, 33, 41.

Pat Collins C.M., a Vincentian priest, is well-known in Ireland and abroad as a speaker, broadcaster and writer. While he has written books on many different topics, his main interest is in the nature of the new evangelisation called for by Popes John Paul II and Benedict XVI; the motives Christians have for engaging in it; and practical means of doing so. He is a founder member of Alpha Ireland and of the New Springtime Community in Dublin, which is devoted to evangelising and training evangelisers.

REGISTRATION: Space at this event is strictly limited. Priority in admission will be given to those who register in advance on a first come basis. To reserve a place, including attendance at the Healing Service, please email your Name, Address and Telephone No to: newspringtime@digit.ie.

There is no registration fee. A separate freewill offering will be taken up each day to defray expenses.

Our mission statement affirms that

“In response to the great commission of Jesus and the Catholic Church’s call for a new evangelisation, we will, with the help of the Holy Spirit, engage in evangelisation ourselves, as well as teaching, training and equipping others who also desire to evangelise those who have not yet developed an intimate personal relationship with Jesus as their Lord and Saviour.”
